Holy Communion

The faithful are reminded that all communicants must be Catholic, in the state of grace, and fasting.

Dress and Decorum in Church

Out of respect for Our Divine Lord in the tabernacle, please try to keep silence in the church as much as possible.

Also, out of respect for Our Lord and for the edification of our neighbor, we ask all to appear in church modestly dressed. For example, slacks, skirts that do not keep the knees covered, sleeveless and low-cut dresses do not meet the norm of Christian modesty for women and girls. Gentlemen also, no less than ladies, are encouraged to be generous in expressing their respect for Our Lord by dressing suitably for Holy Mass. Your cooperation is evidence of your love for the Blessed Sacrament and your respect for the House of God.

Contacting Father

During the week, Fr. Kopec can be reached at Saint Mary's Academy and College: (785)437-2471 x469. For sacramental emergencies you may request to speak to any of the priests stationed in Saint Mary's. Outside of normal working hours follow the instructions on the recorded message to reach the priest on call.

Lost and Found

The St. Michael's Lost and Found is located on the shelf in the vestibule underneath the bulletins. Please check for your missing belongings!

Announcements

Feast of Corpus Christi

The External Solemnity of Corpus Christi will be celebrated next Sunday followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and recitation of the Act of Reparation to the Sacred Heart.

Total Consecration to Our Lady

From Fr. Kopec: Dear Faithful, as mentioned previously, we will have the opportunity of the devotion of Total Consecration to Our Lady the coming feast of the Assumption. A traditional way to go about this is to prepare ahead of time for a month or so. July 11th would be a good place to start. Please see the new and extra books in the bookstore that can help with this. (I personally like the book Let yourself be led by the Immaculate, as I find it simple, accurate and approachable, but certainly any of them can be used.)

Volunteers Needed for Meals

We need some volunteers to serve as backup to provide meals for our priests. If you can help with this occasional task, please contact Mrs. Abeyewardene at 405-808-0126.

Vestibule Seating

The vestibule serves as our cry room for parents with young children. Please sit (young men can even stand) in church, if at all possible, especially out of consideration for nursing mothers. The ushers can usually help you to find a seat. Thank you for your cooperation.

Welcome to Visitors

St. Michael's Church wishes to welcome any visitors who are attending Mass this Sunday. Please join us after Mass in the rectory for coffee and refreshments.

FEAST OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This festival is celebrated on the Sunday after Pentecost, because as soon as the apostles were instructed and consoled by the Holy Ghost, they began to preach openly that which Christ had taught them.

Why do we celebrate this festival?

That we may openly profess our faith in the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, which is the first of Christian truths, the foundation of the Christian religion, and the most sublime of all mysteries; and that we may render thanks, to the Father for having created us, to the Son for having redeemed us, and to the Holy Ghost for having sanctified us.

DOCTRINE ON THE HOLY TRINITY

What is God?

God is the most perfect being, the highest, best Good, who exists, from all eternity, by whom heaven and earth are created, and from whom all things derive and hold life and existence, for of Him, and by Him, and in Him are all things. (Rom. XI. 36.)

What is the Blessed Trinity?

The Blessed Trinity is this one God who is one in nature and threefold in person, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

Is each of these three persons God?

Yes, because each of them has the divine nature and substance.

Are they not three Gods?

No, because all three of these persons have one and the same divine nature and substance.

Is any one of these three persons older, mightier, or greater than the other?

By no means, they are all three from eternity entirely equal to each other in divine omnipotence, greatness, and majesty, and must, therefore, be equally adored and venerated.

Ought one to give himself up to the investigation of the most Blessed Trinity?

No; "For," says the saintly Bishop Martin, "the mystery of the Trinity cannot be comprehended by the human intellect, no one however eloquent can exhaust it; if entire books were written about it, so that the whole world were filled with them, yet the unspeakable wisdom of God would not be expressed. God who is indescribable, can in no way be described. When the human mind ceases to speak of Him, then it but begins to speak." Therefore, the true Christian throws his intellect under the feet of faith, not seeking to understand that which the human mind can as little comprehend, as a tiny hole in the sand can contain the immeasurable sea. A humble and active faith will make us worthy some day in the other world, to see with 'the greatest bliss this mystery as it is, for in this consists eternal life, that by a pious life we may glorify and know the only true God, Christ Jesus His Son, and the Holy Ghost.
